

I will give to the LORD the thanks due to his righteousness, and I will sing praise to the name of the LORD, the Most High. ~Psalm 7:17

Do you have much to be thankful for this year? I've actually heard people say that they have nothing to be thankful for. I think that they aren't trying hard enough.

Maybe you're not eating lobster, but you have food. Maybe your car is getting old and rusty, but you have a car. Maybe your kids misbehave, but you are blessed to have children. Maybe your paycheck isn't as big as you'd like it to be, but you have income. Maybe you have a lousy job, but you have employment. Maybe your residence is small and drafty, but you have a roof over your head. You get the idea.

Sometimes we get to feeling that God hasn't been very good to us, but He is always good. He provides all that we need, every day. He heals our ailments. He watches over us and forgives our sins. His promise of heaven puts joy into our hearts, and He's gone there to prepare a place for each one of us.

The Psalmist wrote, "I will give to the Lord the thanks due to His righteousness."

When we really feel like there is nothing to give thanks for, we can thank God for His holiness. We have a perfect God. We have much to be thankful for. See you in worship.
